Welcome to the team!

If you are a construction worker, Byggnads (the Swedish Building Workers Union) is the trade union for you. Together we are over 100,000 strong, proud and secure members. We are on your side for better wages and a safer work environment.

STRONG

With Byggnads behind you, you are strong. We stand up for each other and together we can negotiate better wages, working conditions and work environment.

PROUD

As a construction worker, you have a unique professional knowledge and skill. At Byggnads, we work together to make sure that it develops and is respected.

SECURE

With Byggnads you know your rights and if you get into trouble, you get help. With collective agreements, insurance, advice and other member benefits, you are safe and secure. Both at work and in your free time.
